Numb. 6938.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 24. to Saturday November 28. 1730.

Copenhagen, November 18, N. S.

THE Court removed two Days ago from Fredericksberg to a Palace in this City, where his Majesty lived when Prince Royal, not intending, as it is supposed, to go into the Royal Habitation till the Mourning is over. The Princess Sophia is come to Charlottenberg, her own House in this City, where she proposes for the future to reside. 'Tis believed the King will not give any Audience in Publick till after the Funeral, the Day for which is not yet fixed, nor the Time for going into Mourning, though the Manner of it is already prescribed.

Hague, Nov. 28, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland broke up their Assembly on Friday last, which they will resume again about the Middle of next Month, having examined the Project communicated to them for the State of War next Year. The Prince of Nassau Friese continues here, and has as yet fixed no Time for his Departure. The Marquess de Fenelon is expected here on Friday next.

The Committee for Letting the Bridge-House Lands, give Notice, that they intend to Lett by Lease, Six Acres of Garden Ground in Lambeth Marsh, adjoyning to St. George's Fields in Surry, in the several Possessions of Jonathan Heath and Elizabeth Symonds, Gardiners: And that the said Committee will sit in the Council-Chamber of the Guildhall, London, on Wednesday the 2d Day of December next, at Four in the Afternoon, to receive Proposals for the Premisses; of which more particular Information may be had at the Comptroller's Office in the Bridge-House, Southwark.

Advertisements.

WHereas Mrs. Mary Anne Crafter, a Pawnbroker, late of Lambeth, in the County of Surry is lately dead, and Mr. Gregory Crafter, living at Mr. John George's, a Glazier, in Shug-lane, near the Hay market, St. James's, is her Administrator: These are to give Notice to all Persons who have any Plate, Rings, Wearing Apparel, or other Things pawn'd to her, that they do fetch them away on or before the First Day of March next, otherwise they will be disposed of. Dated this 25th Day of November, 1730.

WHereas a Sow-big with Pig was on the 8th of March last left at the House of John Goodwyn, of Stathern, in Leicestershire, Victualler, since which Time she has had a Litter of Ten Pigs alive: This is to give Notice, that if the Owner don't come to pay the Charge of keeping the said Sow and Ten Pigs on or before the 5th Day of December next, she and her Pigs will be exposed to Sale.

WHereas the Assignees and Creditors of Benjamin Fenton, of Drury-lane, in the County of Middlesex, Draper, have just Cause to suspect that great Part of the said Bankrupt's Effects are secreted, and remaining in the Hands of Persons unknown; therefore, for the better Discovery of such Effects, the Assignees of the said Commission do hereby promise a Reward of Ten per Cent. to any Person discovering such concealed Effects to the Assignees, or in Proportion for any Part so discovered, within one Week after Receipt or Recovery thereof, to be paid by Charles Worrall, of St. Lawrence-lane, London, Warehouseman, or William Faris, of Bow-Church-Yard, London, Merchant, Assignees. As Witness our Hands this 20th of November, 1730.

Cha. Worrall.
Will. Faris.
